

1. Continue to write your first draft of your play
2. When you are finished, google share it with me so I can make comments.
3. I will be sending you a copy of the diction chapter after you finish your first draft so you can get some more solid ideas of how you want your characters to speak.
4. You will write a second draft after you receive my feedback.