Chamber Makes James Bowie Career Day Annual Affair

Sarah Gauntt

James Bowie Career Day was made an annual affair by the Naples Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday night.

A majority of the businessmen who helped with the project by hiring one of the James Bowie students in December expressed satisfaction with the project and the vote was unanimous to continue it next year.

A letter of appreciation from Mrs. J. M. Lassater, a teacher at the school and comments from the participating students were read by Chamber members at the meeting.

The project brought in about $114 for the James Bowie school to use in its annual project.

In other business, a livestock show committee was named, Lenoy Slider was named general chairman of the watermelon festival again, and Page Bennett reported on progress made toward getting a feed mill established in Naples.

Members of the livestock show committee are Herman Walters, president, Page Bennett, Jack Vissering, Bob Bearden, R. P. Lowery, Homer Cole, M. B. Hampton, Lenoy Slider and Bill Davidson.

The meeting was held at the Coker Chevrolet Company. About 33 members of the Chamber were present.

This annual would not be complete without a note of appreciation to the Pirate Annual Staff for the many hours of hard work they spent on it. If you like the annual, tell them so.

Carol Hawkins, Editor, and Ethel Page, Assistant Editor, deserve much praise for the way they assumed responsibility for the annual, and for their many hours of work in order to meet all deadlines on time.

Congratulations to you, Pirate Staff, for a job well done.
