Norman makes two points.

No soldier was ever made by the study of his manual, and no athlete was ever made by mere instruction. Both are made by hard, faithful drill and the perfection of necessary habits. Performance is all that counts when the game begins.

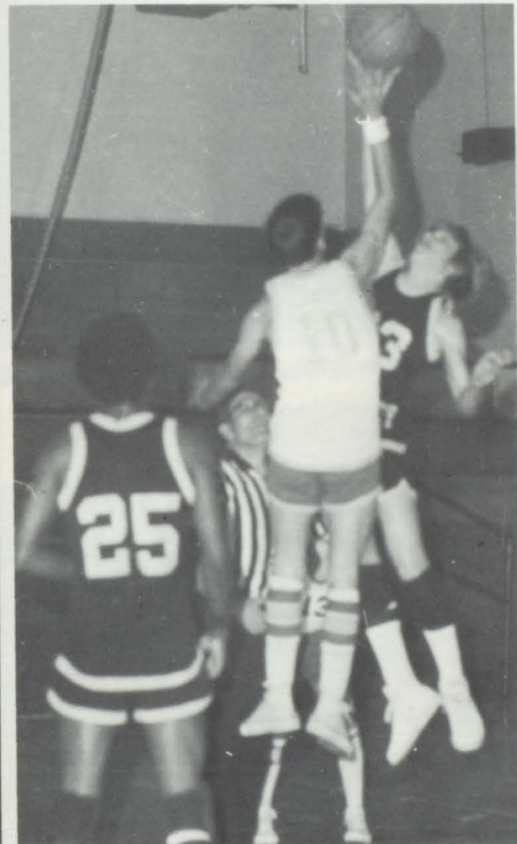

KNUTE ROCKNE

All eyes on the ball!!

Free Shot...

Jump Hobbs!!!

Good Shot, Tim.

Tina, Karla, Tamera, Teena, and Lease presented a talent in the Hoe Down.

Linda and Lisa attended the voting delegate session.

Tammy and Karen await the beginning of the talent show.

Yoyo Durham, a junior, was elected to represent Area VI as a state FHA officer. At the state meeting, she was selected to serve as 1st vice-president of programs.

The judges look at Jori's display which was one of the 4 outstanding ones present.

In the morning session, the Area Chorus sang and recognition was given to those making outstanding achievements. An inspiring speech was given by Bobby Tucker and the 1980-81 officers were installed.

Yoyo Durham, area officer, designed the programs and backdrop for the meeting.

Freida Howard, Linda Sands, and Carolyn Childers served as pages.

Jori Meadows received an award for her scrapbook.

Doreen and Darlene were recognized for Encounter.

Yoyo with her parents.

The 1980-81 Area Officers were installed.

Beth and Doreen sing in the chorus.
