Gone, But Not Forgotten

Jason England

Timothy Clements

Our friendship was so strong, that we will always share, even though the pain is hard it's something we have to bare.

We will always remember them.
They will forever be in our hearts even after eternity our love will never part.

In our minds,
the thoughts reoccur each day because Jason, Timothy, and Scott, we love in every way.

The recent years without them, have passed so slow, the fact that we were friends makes the hurt seem to grow.

We all truly love them very, very much because inside our hearts, is where they all have touched.

Maybe some people don't understand, why this had to be,
but now our friends are happy because in heaven, they are free.

Our Pharmacist Has A Tough Boss: Himself

Our store, like most HEALTH MART pharmacies, is owned by the pharmacist who works here, not some out-of-state investor. That means he's here every day to make sure his customers receive quality products, competitive prices, and the kind of friendly services you expect from a neighbor.

When you need medicine at good prices from friendly people, see the BOSS at HEALTH MART.

A CHEERLEADER

*There are little eyes upon you and they're watching night and day, There are little ears that quickly take in every word you say,
There are little hands all eager to do everything you do,
And a little girl who's dreaming of the day she'll be a cheerleader,
"Just Like You".*

*You're the little girls idol, You're the wisest of the wise,
In her little mind about you no suspicions ever rise,
She believes in you devoutly, Vows that all you say and do, She'll do and say the same things, when she becomes a Cheerleader,
"Just Like You".*

*Now this starry eyed little girl thinks you do everything just right,
And her heart is always pounding as she watches you each Friday Night,
You are setting an example, Your life is put to the test it's true,
By the little girl who's longing to be a Cheerleader,
"Just Like You".*
