

WEEKLY MUSIC CALENDAR!

Each lesson/activity is only 5-10 minutes!

Please note that these activities are not required or graded but will give your students a chance to continue to enjoy and explore music.

Click the links to access the video or worksheets.

Share what you are learning! Take a picture or a video of what you are doing for music and send it to Mrs. Purin at purinj@bethel.k12.ok.us OR post to our Bethel Elementary Music Facebook Page. Pictures may be posted on our FB page OR put in our school yearbook! Many videos can also be found on Mrs. Purin's YouTube page.

Go to the Bethel Music page and watch The Music Show and listen to them talk about the instrument families.	Listen to Farkle McBride read by the author John Lithgow. What instruments did Farkle try in the book?	Mrs. Purin will post a video of her reading the story! Check out the Bethel Music Facebook page or Mrs. Purin's YouTube Channel!	Watch the " Musical Instruments Song ." What instruments did you see and hear?	If you could play ANY instrument what would you pick? Draw a picture or write a story and send it to Mrs. Purin!
---	--	--	--	--

Go to the Bethel Music page and watch The Music Show and listen to them talk about the instrument families.	Listen to Farkle McBride read by the author John Lithgow. What instruments did Farkle try in the book?	Mrs. Purin will post a video of her reading the story! Check out the Bethel Music Facebook page or Mrs. Purin's YouTube Channel!	This boy George reminds me of Farkle!	If you could play ANY instrument what would you pick? Draw a picture or write a story and send it to Mrs. Purin!
---	--	--	---	--

India: Listen to Falu teach you a song, "Rabba," from India in Lesson 1 .	India: Go to the Bethel Site and read about the tabla and harmonium played in lesson 1 . What do they remind you of?	India: Go to the Bethel site and design your own paisley fabric. If you can't print it you can draw your own on any kind of paper.	South Africa: Our singers will teach you a song in Zulu in Lesson 2 .	South Africa: Music and beadwork are ways to communicate. Print and make your own message using the beadwork page or draw your own.
--	---	---	--	--

Watch Lesson 2 to learn how Martha fuses her Native American heritage with folk and blues music. She also talks about different types of rattles.	Make your own rattle! Follow along with Mrs. Purin as she makes a rattle. You can make your own one at home too! Directions here .	You know Mrs. Purin LOVES "How It's Made." Here is a segment on how native drums are made .	One of the first jazz songs we listened to was " String of Pearls ." Listen. Do you remember when we talked about the melodic contour?	Listen to the theme of Sesame Street . Now listen to the jazzier version of the theme. What do you notice that is different?
---	--	---	--	--

A Look Inside the Score is an overview of what's in a score. What is a vocab word that you recognize from music class?	How Notes and Beats Go Together reviews the value of each note. If you have play-doh you can make the notes along with them.	Rests: Sometimes Music is Silence . This one explains the importance of rests in music. What does a rest mean?	Fast or Slow Means Tempo . Exploring the word tempo and what it means. What language are most of the markings in?	Major and Minor . How does the sound change the mood of the music?
--	--	--	---	--

5th graders that want to learn how to play their recorders may follow along with these lessons otherwise they can look at the 4th/5th grade mini-lessons. Work on note names this week and the following week we will focus on the instrument itself!

Here is a rhythm lesson and a video on note names .	Work on reading rhythms and try out this free website to practice note names . This video shows how to change the settings.	One more reading rhythms lesson! Here is another fun free website game to work on note names .	A Look Inside the Score is an overview of what's in a score. Also watch How It's Made Recorders .	How Notes and Beats Go Together and Rests: Sometimes Music is Silence .
---	---	--	---	---

