

Co-curricular and Interscholastic Activities

IGD

The Board believes that student activities are a vital part of the total educational program and should be used as a means of developing wholesome attitudes and good human relations as well as knowledge and skills.

Therefore, the district will provide a program of co-curricular and interscholastic activities geared to the age, interest, and ability level of students.

The establishment as well as the elimination of these programs shall require approval by the Board.

Activities shall be conducted in keeping with the following guidelines.

1. Activity offerings shall be of sufficient variety and number to meet the wide range of interests of students.
2. Most activities should be an outgrowth of curricular activities.
3. All participation shall be voluntary.
4. All activities will be supervised all clubs and groups will have a faculty advisor. All teachers will participate in the program on a fair and impartial basis. The building principal will have the authority to assign teachers to co-curricular activities when volunteers and other means fail to secure necessary supervisors.

Participation will be subject to the district's extra-duty pay policy.
