

Executive Sessions

BDC

Executive sessions may be convened, by a vote of the Board, for discussion relating to the following:

1. To consider the appointment, employment, right to practice or dismissal of a public officer, professional person or employee, or to hear complaints or charges brought against a public officer, professional person or employee;
2. Matters relating to litigation or proposed litigation in which the Board is a party;
3. Consideration of the selection or purchase of real estate.
4. Consideration of the acceptance of gifts, bequests, or donations where confidentiality has been required by the donor;
5. To consider or receive any information classified as confidential by law;
6. Consideration of accepting or tendering wage and benefit offers and to discuss terms of employment during all negotiations; and
7. Consideration of suspension, expulsion, or disciplinary action in connection with a student.

The only persons who may attend executive sessions are Board members, the superintendent (except when his appointment or salary is under consideration), and other individuals the Board may invite to be present.

Any decision discussed and deliberated upon during an executive session shall be formally acted upon at an open meeting following the executive session.

No action shall be taken at executive sessions. Minutes of executive sessions shall be recorded but not published. Minutes of executive sessions shall be maintained in confidential files of the district not open to the public. That such a session will be, or was held, shall be recorded in the minutes of the preceding or subsequent open meeting, and the minutes will be approved at the subsequent meeting.

Board members and other persons attending an executive session are duty-bound not to disclose matters discussed at the executive session.
