

Staff Conduct

GCCB

Responsibility for acceptable conduct and dress will rest primarily with the employee as a professional individual. Teachers should wear appropriate dress for professional classroom work and while directing official school activities or functions.