

Student Demonstrations

JFI

Students have a right to attend school free from protest and violence. The Board will seek to provide a school atmosphere free from the threat of student unrest, protest and violence.

Should student unrest or violence develop, the school administration will have prepared a plan, which will protect other students from violence.