

SHAC Minutes for April 24, 2018

Members included Melissa Burden, Karla Swearingin, Ingia Saxton, Shannon Gleaton, Andy Hudson, Mary Kay Davis, Melissa Tepera, Stephanie McCullough, Dee Ann Mills, Ward Hudson and Bobby Atchley.

Members reviewed and discussed the School Health Survey. Parenting and Maternity Awareness Program, Pure Truth program and Staff Development programs were all discussed. The survey that is due May 2nd, 2018 was accepted by SHAC members with no changes this year April 24, 2018.

SHAC members talked about having High School students participate with SHAC next school year. This will bring the students aspect of what is needed for our students regarding vaping, bullying, alcohol and drinking and texting while driving or any other health hazards our students may hear about.

Discussions for next school year speakers include Linda Atkins that wrote a book about her experience of losing a child to a drunk driver. This is a friend of Melissa Tepera's.

Scott Kessell is also a speaker for Staff. He talks more about awareness for/to staff. Dee Ann is going to find a date for staff development.

Gracefully Strong is another program for 4th - 8th grade girls. It teaches self-respect, power to connect with others without judging. This could be an after school program with parents. This is a girls program. This will tie in with Stephanie Harris's Operation Beautiful during school.

New Members: Will invite Christa from MHMR to continue to come to SHAC. More new members for next year will be Shannon Gleaton and Katina Lindley, Health Care provider. Other possible members were the Eagle Eye dads from the schools and Greg Bowman from the church.

It was suggested to research other programs before deciding on which program to use next year for our Abstinence Program. Calling other school districts and checking Granbury and Ft. Worth to see what programs they have to offer to schools.

This is the last meeting for this school year. We will send information out regarding speakers for next year via emails. Melissa Burden will research for abstinence programs in surrounding areas and Melissa Tepera and Stephanie McCullough will search and confirm dates for speakers for next year. Dee Ann will work on a date for Scott Kessel to speak to staff.
