

CUSTODIAL AND NONCUSTODIAL PARENTAL RIGHTS

Unless a legal document is on file restricting contact both natural parents have the right to view the student's school records; to receive school progress reports; to visit the child briefly at school; and to participate in parent and teacher conferences (not necessarily together in the same conference). The non-custodial parent may receive information about or review the records of his/her child. However, if the child has been legally adopted, the natural parent loses those parental rights which are gained by the adopting parent if the natural parent's rights have been terminated by court order.
