

Winfield Independent School District

Outside Food Guidelines

According to Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA), parents may bring food to their children in the cafeteria from an outside source. However, parents may not bring food to another child or student that is not their own. To ensure our students at Winfield ISD are receiving TDA's required food components and to take precautions for food allergies we ask parents to be considerate of these guidelines.