Any remarks that you care to make about yourself such as club membership, church, or work in the community may be made on the back of this application.

Rules

This scholarship must be used in the fall following your graduation from high school at the college or school of your choice.

A check will be sent to the college or school by the scholarship committee on August 1st for the fall semester and January 2nd for the spring semester.

This money is for on campus expenses such as books, tuition, room and board, etc.

If for any reason you should drop out of school or college, the reward for the remaining semesters will be retained by the committee. In the event of illness or reasons not anticipated, you are forced to drop out of school, the scholarship is subject to review by the committee.

I have read and understand the provisions set forth in the above "Rules."
