Evant ISD will begin serving free breakfast and lunch to all students from April 6th through May 27th, 2021. The limited funding is available through USDA waivers, as part of the Coronavirus Relief Act.

Meals will be available on traditional school days, not including holidays or weekends. Students will be able to go through the cafeteria line and receive the free meal.

Virtual Learners will be able to pick up meals from 1:30-2:00 pm. Students may also pick up breakfast from 8:00-9:00 am and lunch from 1:30-2:00 pm, in the school cafeteria.

In addition to Evant ISD students, the waiver allows the district to provide a free meal to any child between the ages of 0-18.

Parents may pick up meals without any required documentation if children are present. If children are not present, proper documentation is required. The following are acceptable forms of documentation:

- an official school letter
- student report card
- student attendance records with a student's name
- birth certificate

In the event the waiver is discontinued by the USDA, before May 27th, 2021, then Evant ISD will notify parents of any changes.
