Please note: This program will provide you with the opportunity to earn your high school diploma and an Associate of Liberal Arts Degree while still in high school.

The United ECHS at LBJ will accept a cohort of 125 students yearly. LBJ High School will be allocated 101 slots; United, United South and Alexander will each be allocated 8 slots. Students will be chosen using a performance-blind, open-access lottery system that encourages and considers all students (all students have an equal opportunity for acceptance, regardless of background or academic performance).
