

OFFICIAL NAME OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT

As ordered and declared by the State Board of Education on (date) , the official name of the I-002 School District of Marshall County shall be the Madill School District. In all matters and activities relating to the overall operation of the school district, for example, correspondence from the central office, lettering on school vehicles, diplomas, and all other matters relating to the official business of the overall district, this district will be referred to as the Madill School District.

The high school will be named Madill High School, the middle school Madill Middle School, and the elementary school Madill Elementary School. All other buildings and property will use the district name.