Thomas S. Justiss' Granddaughters Visit School Named After Him

Three of the five granddaughters of the late Paris educator, Thomas S. Justiss, visited the campus named after him on Thursday. Kim Hunter, Marci Blankenship, and LeAnne Justiss toured the campus, visited with students and teachers, and discussed their grandfather and his legacy that continues at Justiss Elementary.
