Justiss celebrates Dr. Seuss's Birthday and Read Across America Week

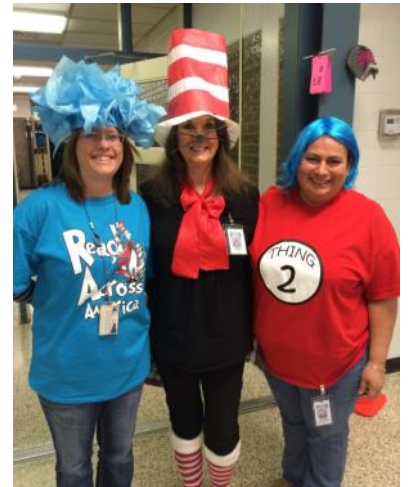

March 2 is Dr. Seuss's birthday as well as the annual Read Across America Day and Justiss Elementary celebrates all week. Fun activities around the campus include Paris Junior High and Paris High School students reading with all classes. The Justiss staff is dressing up, hallways are decorated, and students are eating green eggs and ham. Wednesday will be the school's official Read Across America Night with a visit from the Cat in the Hat, a picture booth, door prizes, and lots of good books to read.
