Justiss students celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday with 'Read Across America' day

National Education Association's (NEA's) Read Across America Day is a nationwide reading celebration that takes place annually on March 2—Dr. Seuss's birthday. Across the country, thousands of schools and libraries participate by bringing together kids, families, and books! Justiss Elementary school is celebrating reading all week.

Dylan Dimond, 1st grade, has fun in the photo booth posing with the Cat in the Hat, (Writing Lab teacher, Amanda Little) during Justiss' Read Across America Night.

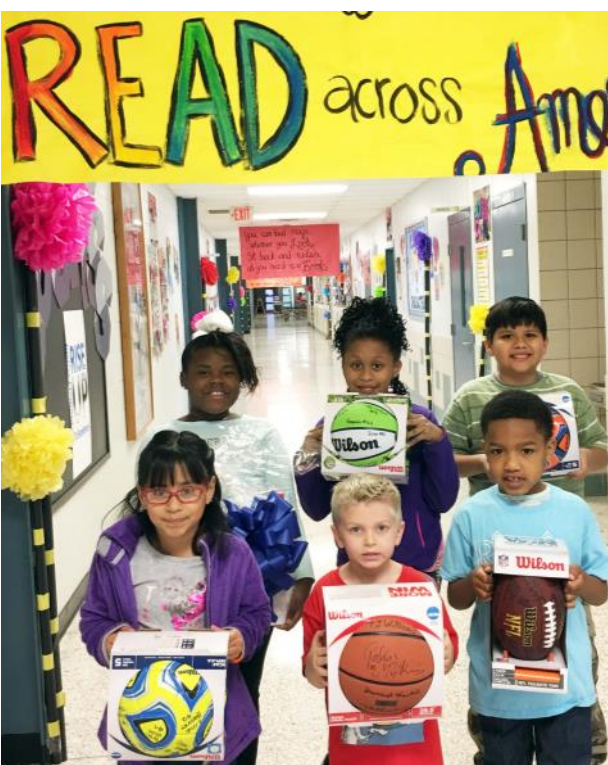

London Henry, 2nd grade, and Micaiah Henry, Kindergarten, enjoy Read Across America Night with their parents Bennetta and Kendall Henry.

Third grade bilingual students spent time reading to the Kindergarten bilingual classes during Read Across America Week!
