Justiss STAAR Family Night

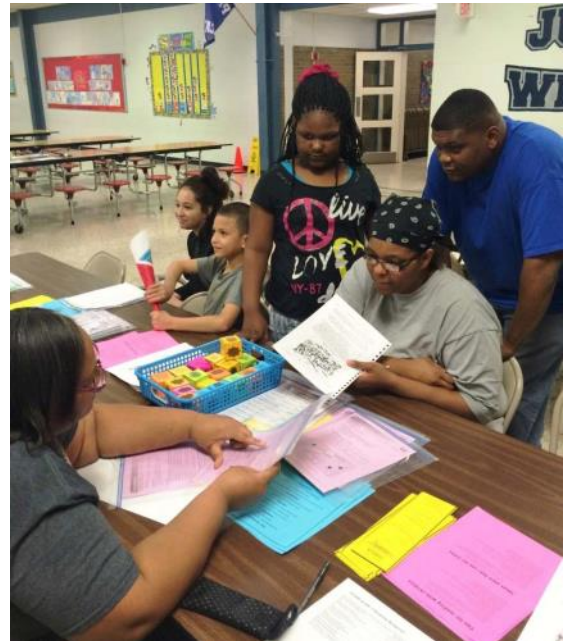

Justiss Elementary School STAAR Family Night is an annual event held to share important information with parents about the STAAR test. Teachers provide parents with math and reading games and important information that parents can use to help their students be the best testers possible.

Justiss 2nd grader Marcavious Washington enjoys reading with his older brother, Wesley Gage, during the Justiss Elementary STAAR Family Night .

Justiss 4th grade teacher Amanda Tidwell explains an activity to 4th grade parent Dolores Lane and her daughters Litzy Ortiz and Lea Lane.

Michelle Giles, Justiss 3rd grade ELAR teacher, speaks with 3rd grader Tymia Browner and her parents Ty and LaShanda Browner.
