PHS Blue Blazes Band brings home marching awards

The Paris High School Marching Band competed this past weekend in the Northeast Texas Marching Festival at Texas A&M-Commerce and brought home top awards.

The band received awards for: Most Outstanding Band in Class 4A, Most Outstanding Color Guard, and Most Outstanding Percussion. Bands and color guards from 21 area high schools performed including several bands who were state finalists last year.

The band is under the direction of Charles Grissom, assistants Bryan Ewing, Beverly Ewing, Jared Cronk/Color Guard and Tyler Gerton/Percussion.

Members of the Paris High School Blue Blazes Band Color Guard and Percussion Section celebrate at the Northeast Texas Marching Festival.
