

NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jeanne Kraft
jkraft@parisisd.net

Paris High School students get a glimpse into engineering and forensic science careers

Students in Deborah Andrews' classes at Paris High School are getting current industry information and a glimpse into career opportunities. Guest speaker Mike Tibbets, Vice President of Hayter Engineering, talked to students in Applied Engineering about rewarding and well-paying career opportunities. Dr. Stephen Walter discussed pathology and autopsies with students in Forensic Science classes.

Photographed from left are Diamond Dangerfield, Jay Bell, William Moten, Xavier Ricks and Dr. Stephen Walter.

From left are Mike Tibbets, Chris Valle, Shannon White, Teddy Hubbard, and Connor Rogers.

