Paris High School varsity girls basketball team delivers donations

The Paris High School varsity girls basketball team collected donations for the children at the Truman W. Smith Children's Care Center in Gladewater. Coach Deanne Dial takes the team there each year in remembrance of her special needs nephew who passed away in 2013. Coach Dial said, "We got the opportunity to visit, deliver donations, and pray with the children at the center. It was truly a blessing for our team."
