PHS Varsity Winter Guard Takes Silver Medal at State Championships

The Paris High School Varsity Winter Guard made school history by winning the silver medal at the North Texas Colorguard Association state championships at Flower Mound on March 30. This is the first time Paris High has brought home a medal from a championships performance. Director Jared Cronk said, "These students are dedicated to their art and a joy to watch perform."
