Paris ISD celebrates National Custodians Day

Paris ISD celebrated their custodians today on National Custodians Day. The district gave each custodian a card with a special treat from Sonic and Papa Murphy's. Superintendent Paul Jones, Assistant Superintendent Althea Dixon, and Public Information Officer Melanie Meredith went to each campus to let the custodians know how much they appreciate all they do to keep each campus clean. Each custodian has gone above his or her normal duties with the extra measures in place due to COVID-19.
