Paris ISD Student Wins Lamar County Spelling Bee

The top sixteen Lamar County spellers competed in the Virtual Lamar County Spelling Bee on February 10. Paris Junior High School eighth-grader Nicole Octavio was named champion.

Nicole advances to the Golden Chick Dallas Regional Spelling Bee to be held online within the testing window on March 19. Due to the COVID challenges, Nicole will complete her Regional Level OTP test online at Paris Junior High. The Golden Chick Dallas Regional Spelling Bee is open to 4th-8th grade public, private, charter, and home school students within the 350 county Dallas region.

The top two participants from the Golden Chick Dallas Regional Spelling Bee will then advance to the Scripps National Spelling Bee in June.
