

Paris ISD students place high at FPS International Conference

Paris ISD Future Problem Solvers won two championships at international competition at Indiana University. Zain Syed won both first place and grand champion titles of the Junior Individual Community Problem Division with Campaign EPIDEMIC. Operation Second Chance took first place in the Intermediate Team Community Problem Solving division. Paige Dixon, Matthew Draeger, Damian Granberry, Thomas Zimmerman and Christopher Nash made up the team.

Other Paris ISD competitors placed high in competition. The problem solving team of Andi Bawcum, Allison Ensey, Maddy Struve and Elle Hussey placed 17th out of 63 senior division teams. The team of Rhiannon Chambers, Olivia Palomares, Emily Mason and Miranda Lester were final-ists as was the team of Taylor Bills, Daron Williamson, Riley Kee and Warren Blackmon. The team of KeShauwn Ellis, Zachary De La Garza, Reagan Stone and Lucas Grossnickle placed 16th out of 58 junior division teams.

Photographed sitting from the left are Coach Jennifer Simmons, Damian Granberry, Matthew Draeger, Allison Ensey, Elle Hussey, Coach Sandra Strom, Riley Kee, Taylor Bills, Olivia Palomares, Emily Mason, Coach Debb Fleming, Rhiannon Chambers, and Zain Syed. Standing are Thomas Zimmerman, Paige Dixon, KeShauwn Ellis, Lucas Grossnickle, Reagan Stone, Maddy Struve, Warren Blackmon, Daron Williamson, and Miranda Lester.