Great Finish for Crockett Intermediate and James Petrikas in San Antonio during the Exxon Mobile State Science Fair. James brings home the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's "Taking the Pulse of the Planet Award". James did an excellent job and we are all very proud of him

April is School Library Month!

Parents can read more about school libraries at <http://www.ala.org/aasl/parents/know>

CAREER AND COLLEGE READINESS

"School libraries are essential learning resources and librarians are the essential 'guides inside' our schools, leading everyday teaching and learning toward methods and outcomes that best prepare our students for the challenges of the 21st century." Bernie Trilling, Global Director, Oracle Education Foundation, 2010
