Superintendent Eubanks and the Board discussed the Quarterly Financial reports

Superintendent Eubanks and the Board discussed adding minutes to the school day. The first bell will ring at 7:45 a.m. and the last bell at 3:30 p.m.

Superintendent Eubanks gave his report on summer activities, new staff and cyber security training. The new custodian, Sharon Parum, began work on Monday. She has been waxing floors and other cleaning jobs. Mr. Fletcher has been moving furniture out of the rooms so that they could be waxed as well as doing some cleaning up around the AG shop. The school house has been getting cleaned and some maintenance done on it. Athletic workouts have been going good. There have been a lot of students showing up. Coaches are doing a good job of cleaning and sanitizing after workouts. Kenzie Donaldson was hired for the Pre-K class and Robin Eubanks will be teaching 2nd grade. We are still looking for a secondary English teacher. Everyone has completed their cyber security training.

A motion was made by Nathan Potter to adjourn at 8:14 p.m. Brad Wilkerson seconded. Motion carried unanimously.
