¡Disfruta el español!

Take time to "enjoy Spanish" and all it has to offer!

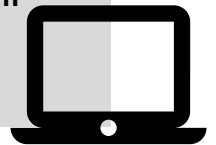

Directions: Select items from the below choiceboard and complete them weekly.

Post on Instagram in Spanish!
You can create your own post or repost another Spanish language post. Remember: hashtags in Spanish! And as with everything, make sure it is school appropriate.
#excelente

Listen to Spanish language music all day. Spotify has a vast variety of options.
Maybe you'll come across a song you like!
Remember: on Spotify, you can browse by country, or start with "Latin Hit Mix" or "Viva Latino." You can also read most lyrics for songs.

Visit artist Frida Kahlo's home in Mexico. You can take a virtual tour online! How do you think her home is a reflection of her artwork?

Go on lyricstraining.com
and play a couple of songs!
Follow the directions on the site.

Make a simple meal: rice and beans! This is a staple in many Latin households.
Check out this recipe at Goya:

If you have another recipe you'd like to try that is Hispanic, try it!

Make a recording answering the question "¿Qué haces durante la cuarentena?".
Listen to it and self correct.

Dancing is an important part of Hispanic culture. Look up "salsa dancing tutorial" or "salsa dance class" on YouTube and start dancing!

Visit the exhibit of Guernica by Pablo Picasso at the Reina Sofia Museum in Madrid via

After studying the art, recreate it! Be creative!

Studying the lyrics to music, no matter the genre, can be very helpful in learning Spanish. Study Selena's famous song Bidi Bidi Bom Bom. Try to memorize the song and learn new words!
