

TITLE I
PARENT PARTICIPATION POLICY
LINCOLN SCHOOL
2020 – 2021

This policy concerns involvement and relationships between teachers, students, and parents. It has been adopted by Lincoln School. Lincoln parental involvement activities include, but are not limited to:

- ❖ Through parent orientation, every parent will be provided information concerning Oklahoma Academic Standard (OAS), state and local assessments, and Lincoln’s schoolwide Title I participation. Parents unable to attend orientation will be presented this information through parent-teacher conferences and/or written communication.
- ❖ Parent-teacher and/or parent-student-teacher conferences with classroom teachers will be scheduled according to the district calendar for all students. Other conferences may be scheduled as needed. Conference time will include guidance for parents in interpreting assessment results and monitoring their child’s progress.
- ❖ The School-Parent-Student Compact will be presented before or during the first conference. Compacts detail how teachers, parents, and students work together to maximize academic achievement and can guide discussion during conference time. The compact will be reviewed and updated at the annual site Title I meeting.
- ❖ Student agendas may be used to inform parents of their child’s school progress and/or activities.
- ❖ Parents will be kept informed of school activities through newsletters, school websites, classroom communication applications, a monthly calendar of events, electronic sign postings, and/or student agendas.
- ❖ Committee meetings will be scheduled with parents of students who qualify for assistance through special services.
- ❖ Schoolwide parent activities will be planned at a variety of times to involve parents in their child’s education.
- ❖ Parents will be encouraged to volunteer in many activities as deemed appropriate at the district and site level.

- ❖ Lincoln Elementary will distribute the site Title I plan (mission, objectives, strategies, and actions) to parents of children served by this school. It will be included in the handbook, on the website, or be distributed separately.
