Superintendent's Message

Dear Seniors:

Each year I have the opportunity to leave some timely message for the senior class. Therefore, it is also my pleasure to write one for your class.

America is a land of opportunity for the man with a skill or a profession. Even though you have gone through high school, I feel that you should better prepare yourselves for the patterns of tomorrow. Definitely our population is on the increase. Automation is rapidly taking the place of manual labor but there will be more room for technicians and skilled labor. Train and get the "Know-how" for tomorrow's positions. Have some definite aim at this time and the position will be waiting for you when you finish your training.

It has been a pleasure to have been your superintendent for the past eight years. Best of luck to you.

Sincerely,

Elo Rohde

Senior Class Prophecy

In my office I turn a page over on the calendar to March, 1968. I have just received word from my boss I am to make a business trip to Houston.

In ten minutes flat I am at the airport. Just before boarding the plane, I notice the pilot to be James Crow-We are soon in Houston where I step off the plane and hail a taxi and discover that its driver is Daniel Is.

I have him to take me to the Manhattan Recording Studio where the Starletts, a dance band with which business trip is concerned, is rehearsing. The leader of the dance band is Linda Kaye Kubena.

After making our deal, we and the business manager, Una Mae Krenek, decide to run an ad of the coming in THE HOUSTON GAZETTE, a newspaper, which we find is run by Faye Ann Kunetka. Before leaving the , Linda Kaye informs me that Reese Schmidt and Edgar von Minden are partners in an exclusive barbershop e first floor of the Continental Office Building.

Outside, while about to cross the street, I am almost hit by an important looking business man in a sport whom I discover to be Eddie Chovanec. On the way to a luncheon I see a sign on a large building which the inscription, "WOMEN'S GYMNASIUM-Owner and Instructor, Elaine Heinsohn."

While waiting for my order at the luncheon, whose owner is Virginia Lou Wied, I scan through the local paper. On the front page I notice that Colonel Emil John Matura is returning home from foreign war service. e tycoon column I read about Franklin Muesse, former cattle rancher, who has just brought in his 30th oil . A full-page advertisement says that the famous hair stylist Marilyn Cordes, will be in town next week. my portable radio I hear the announcement that Robert James and four other famous scientists have just ehed the project for building the inhabited Earth satellite station, "Upnik." Just as I leave the luncheon, I gnize Theo. Krenek, dressed in a flashy sailor suit with a girl in each arm, and obviously enjoying himself much to notice me.

Being time for me to leave, I proceed to the airport and am soon on my way back to Austin. Engine trou- on the way forces us to land in the prosperous town of Fayetteville. The calm collected stewardess, Genelle midt, keeps everyone from panicking. She tells me she is married to a soldier overseas. Looking about my home town, I recall memories of high school years, which reminds me of the old classmates I have run onto y. Then I wonder what they thought of me, Ann Louise Cordes, only a private secretary.

F. F. A. News

The Fayetteville Chapter of the Future Farmers of America began its new year with Franklin Muesse as its president, followed by the election of the following officers:

Vice President -----	E. J. Baca
Secretary -----	Reese Schmidt
Treasurer -----	Robert James
Reporter -----	James Crowley
Sentinel -----	Edward Chovanec

A barbecue was prepared by the chapter for the members, their dates and the chapter's honorary members. The barbecue was served in the Public School Gymnasium on October 23.

Faye Ann Kunetka, a senior, was elected as our sweetheart. The contest was held during the month of October, with the results being announced at the F. F. A. Barbecue.

The Leadership Contest at Columbus on November 26 was entered.

On December 18, we combined efforts with the F. H. A. Chapter and had a Christmas party.

A donkey basketball game was held in the gymnasium on February 17. Last year's game was a great success. Our barn dance, an annual affair, is being planned for May 7. We have selected Clyde Chessier and his Village Playboys. The proceeds from these events will go toward a summer tour to distant parts of the United States.

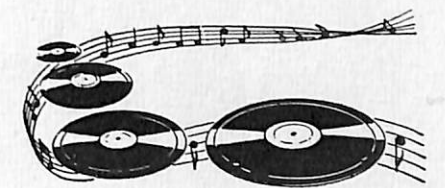

The planning of a Father and Son Banquet for March 26 is underway.

Summer activities will include a summer tour and possibly a party. Last year's summer tour was to Denver, Colorado. We were gone eight days.

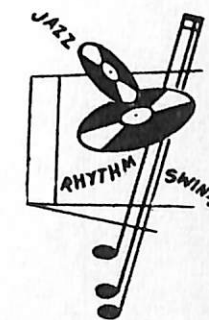

We, the members of the Fayetteville Future Farmer Chapter and our advisor, Mr. Gabe Dooley, Jr., extend our hearty thanks and express our appreciation for the financial and moral support which our fellow citizens have given us. Our chapter can only be as good as the support it receives from the community.

A successful basketball season ended on February 14, 1958, with the defeat of Burton. Our most valued win of the season came with the defeat of Round Top-Carmine in our high school gymnasium. We ended in third place in district standings. Also a credit to this season's record was the Consolation trophy, won at the Waelder Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Top scoring players of the season were Co-Capt. Franklin Muesse-601, Co-Capt. James Crowley-287, James Havran-209, E. J. Baca-191, Edward Chovanec-173, Gus Kautz-54, Wayne Burnside-43, Edwin Kubena-30, Dale Heinsohn-28, and Chas Chovanec-13.

The first five listed above were the varsity starting squad men most of the season.
