DEDICATION

This edition of the Bluebonnet is dedicated to the parents of the Seniors of the year nineteen-hundred and fifty-nine. To our mothers and fathers whose guiding hands and understanding minds are one of the main factors that have contributed on our having attained these twelve years of education

Words seem inadequate in expressing our gratitude for the countless number of things you have done for us. We are indeed proud of you parents and extend to you most sincere thanks. May God bless you.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Seniors,

Each of you is graduating from high school and each one of you should know yourselves. By now you should have discovered your talents and you should try to make them grow, have confidence in yourselves and the future. Problems are more difficult and more demanding than ever before. Hard work and ability will always have their reward;--think creatively, launch into the deep, and success will await you.

Sincerely,

Elo Rohde

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

One day while walking down Main Street of Fayetteville, I was stunned by a sign which read, "World Famous Trumpeter". Anxious as I always was, I entered the room and walked up to the secretary and much to my surprise, she was none other than Betty Lou Muesse. After a short chat with Betty Lou, I asked her to introduce me to this "trumpeter". At no introduction was necessary, for when I saw the face, I recognized it immediately as Charles Chovanec.

While walking on down the street, my eye was caught by a very attractive show poster at the theater. Upon approaching the theater I read, Coming soon - "Dance With Me Don", and starring a new brunette movie star, which was none other than Roberta Coufal. After reading a few more lines on this poster, I soon learned that this show was written and produced by the most popular girl of our class, Carol Ann Treybig.

In continuing my walk down the street, I noticed a sign which read, "Be safe and fly with James". I wondered who this could be and walked in, and there was James Havran now married, owning, and operating his own helicopter instead of driving a school bus.

Being very thirsty by now, I walked into a cafe at a corner. There I recognized the owner to be one of my classmates, Lillie Mae Slavik, who had taken over Kubena's Cafe. While drinking my orange soda, I happened to spill a drop on my skirt. I decided to go to the Cleaning and Pressing Shop and see if they could remove this spot within a few minutes. Upon arriving at the shop, I found no one else but Alvy Ray Kyle as the owner and operator of it.

Walking a little further I was frightened by the honk of a passing automobile filled with beautiful models. And to my surprise, the driver of the Cadillac was E. J. Baca and I soon learned that E. J. was a Cadillac Dealer here instead of a Chevrolet operator and was doing fine.

Walking down the next street, I noticed a night club sign which read, "Jim's Night Club". Still being anxious, I walked in and there was none other than Jimmie Gerik, singing one of the latest hits. Later I learned that Jimmie was a "World Famous Rock and Roll Singer", and that he was getting ready to start on his seventh million.

After a short chat with Jimmie, I was becoming very tired. But being in Fayetteville, I just had to see a movie before retiring for the day. After purchasing my ticket, it dawned upon me that the owner was none other than Kirby Myers, now owning not one theater, but several.

After enjoying the show, I, Violet Bernshausen, returned to my home in Roznov to continue my career in sewing.

F.F.A. NEWS

The Fayetteville Chapter of the Future Farmers of America began its new year with James Havran as its president, followed by the election of the following officers:

Vice President .....	Wayne Burnside
Secretary .....	Gus Kautz
Treasurer .....	E. J. Baca
Reporter .....	Edwin Kubena
Sentinel .....	Everett Wied

A barbecue was prepared by the Chapter for the members, their dates and the Chapter's honorary members. The barbecue was served in the Public School Gymnasium on October 22.

Dorothy Seidel, a junior, was elected as our sweetheart. The contest was held during the month of October, with the results being announced at the F. F. A. Barbecue.

The F. F. A. Chapter in cooperation with the F. H. A. Chapter attended the State Fair in Dallas on October 4, which was Rural Youth Day.

The Chapter members had three teams participating in the District Leadership Contest, they were: radio broadcasting, Senior Chapter conducting team, and Junior F. F. A. Trip.

Our barn dance, an annual affair, is being planned for May 6. We have selected Jimmie Heap and his Melody Masters to provide music for the occasion. Some of the proceeds from this event will go toward a summer tour.

Last year's summer tour took the chapter members into ten different states and 250 miles into Canada. The trip lasted twelve days, traveling a total of approximately 3900 miles.

The planning of a summer tour is underway but the destination is not definitely decided.

The planning of a Father and Son Banquet for April is underway.

We, the members of the Fayetteville Future Farmer Chapter and our advisor, Mr. Gabe Dooley, Jr., extend our hearty thanks and express our appreciations for the financial and moral support which our fellow citizens have given us. Our chapter can only be as good as the support it receives from the community.
