To one who has generously devoted much time, energy, and patience for the improvement of our Athletic Department, and whose avid interest in the scholastic achievements of our school has helped the betterment of all concerned, we, the Senior Class of Fayetteville Rural High School, do proudly dedicate this, the 26th Edition of the Bluebonnet, to our coach, teacher, and friend,

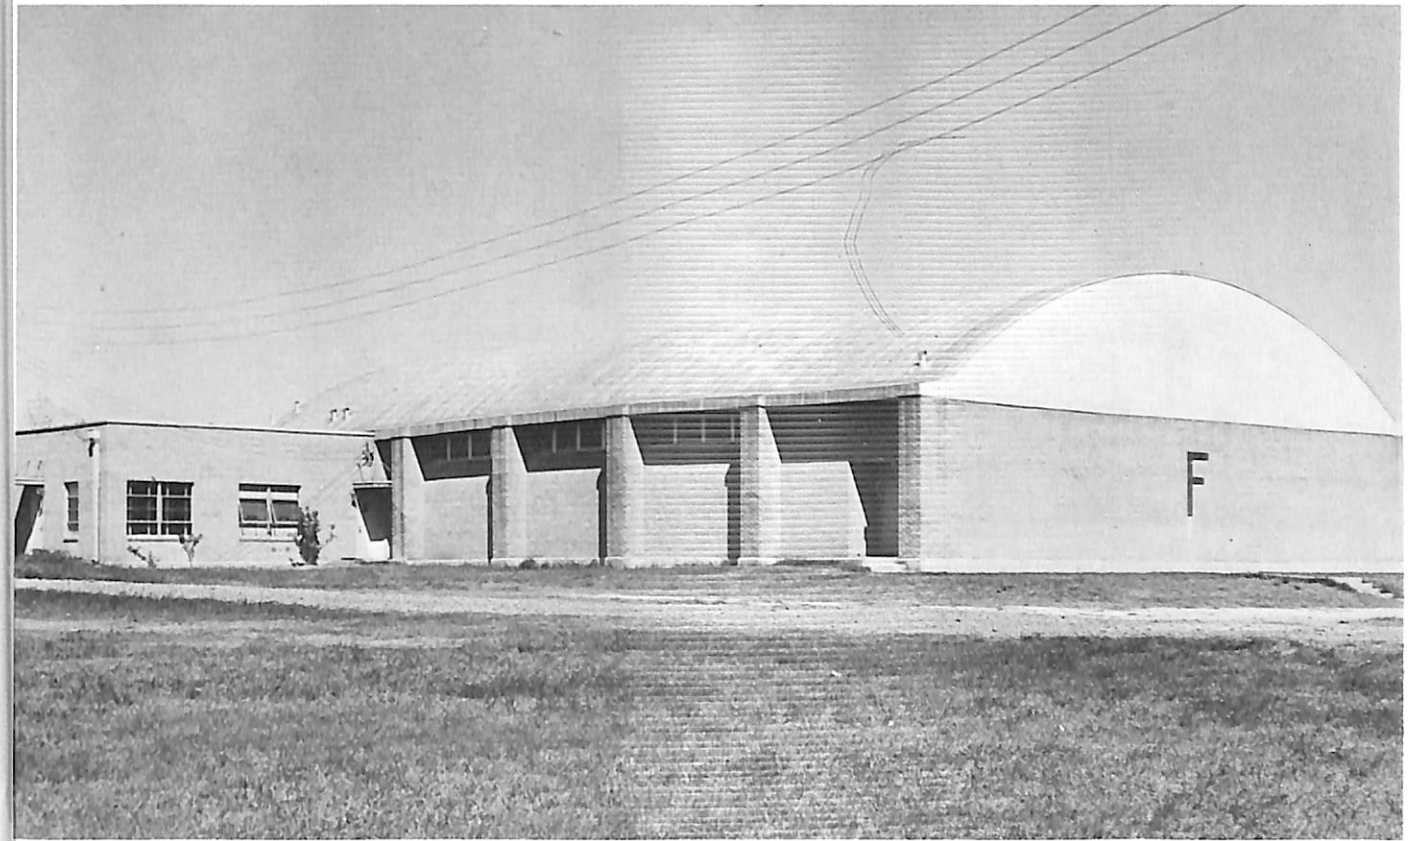

MR. JERRY D. ODSTRCIL.

In the year 1912 the Fayetteville Elementary building was erected by a well-known Houston contractor. With the aid of a bond issue, sponsored by the late J. R. Kubena, approximately twenty thousand dollars was raised by taxation to finance the building expenses. On July 31, 1931, the state approved Fayetteville High School as a fully affiliated four-year High School. Members of the Board of Trustees were:

President John A. Kubena
 Secretary R. B. Spacek
 Member E. S. Kovar

This is the present Main Building of Fayetteville Rural High School. Once, only a four-room building, whose second story rooms had folding doors which could be folded and the entire second story would be converted into an assembly room. Now the building consists of a library, containing over two thousand volumes; a science laboratory, equipped with approximately eight to ten thousand dollars' worth of science and chemistry equipment; a large hall containing trophies that have been won by the Fayetteville Athletic Department; a typing department containing some of the most modern typewriters existing today; a mathematics room, and a history department. All as of now, are modern and up-to-date in all respects.

THE STAFF

ADMINISTRATION

Congratulations to you Seniors !

You read in history about the "Roaring Twenties" but you are now graduating from high school in the turbulent sixties. In spite of all the uncertainties and turbulence in the world, you are indeed fortunate and ought to be congratulated for graduating from high school into a turbulent world. It is frequently during periods of adversities that many young people will rise to their greatest heights of achievements in periods of unsettled conditions in the world. You ought to consider it an honor and a privilege to be able to step out into this turbulent world and to prepare yourself to make your worthy contributions to our civilization. Your loved ones, your friends, and all humanity will acclaim your success. May each and every one of you attain success in your chosen field. May God speed you on your way.

Sincerely,

Jesse J. Joche

OBJECTIVES OF A STUDENT COUNCIL

1. To promote a better teacher-student relationship.
2. To promote a better student-student relationship.
3. To sponsor educational programs.
4. To promote beautification of the school grounds.

The National Honor Society

OFFICERS 1964-65

President	Clarence Marusik
Vice-President	Carol Sue Weyand
Secretary	Marian Coufal
Treasurer	Kathy Pazdorny
Reporter	Barbara Ann Kasmiersky

The Fayetteville Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized March 23, 1962. Its purpose is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of the secondary schools of the nation.

The emblem of the society is the keystone and flaming torch which bears the letters C., S., L., and S. These letters stand for the four cardinal principles of the organization which are: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Students gaining membership must have these qualifications in order to be admitted.

The society's motto is Noblesse Oblige, its flower is the yellow rose, and its colors are blue and gold.

The Widow Peppin and deaf old Pappy Stilsby have sworn to shoot each other on sight as their mountain feud rages verbally. To make matters worse, Pappy's son, Luke, and Ma Peppin's daughter, Emmy, are in love with each other. The two old feudists have been planning second matrimonial ventures, and each has secretly engaged Wash Jeddo, the half-witted village scribe, to write to a matrimonial bureau for a mate. Wash has enclosed Emmy's picture in Ma's letter and Luke's in Pappy's, signing their respective names instead of Ma's and Pappy's. Meanwhile, the mountain is all agog over the homecoming of the Triffet girls, radios newest hillbilly entertainers. When Sol attempts to sign Ma on the dotted line, she mistakes him for an answer to her letter and jumps at the chance. Complications set in as one of the Triffet sisters tries to vamp Luke and a pair of wildcats in the shape of a Wild Irish rose and a temperamental Italian lad arrive from the matrimonial bureau to claim their mates. Luke and Emmy are dumfounded as Hog Mountain is transformed into an active volcano of riotous courtship. In the midst of the turmoil, Pappy comes to settle his score with Ma and is captured by the wild Irish rose in her wildest moment. With Pappy and Luke securely tied to a settee, Ma sends for the preacher-man; whereupon disclosures follow and the hallabaloo subsides. How the mates are properly selected is a triumph of hillbilly dexterity, and Sol signs up enough hillbilly warblers to start a new revolution on the air...
