SUPERINTENDENT CULTIVATES PATTERNS OF LEADERSHIP

Because every school needs someone to direct it, someone to make important or everyday decisions, Fayetteville has one of the most qualified superintendents to act as leader, counselor, and friend. Mr. Ben Cobb is this man. From determining school policies, or settling school-related matters, to friend and advisor, Mr. Cobb fills this position with good judgement and understanding in dealing with the problems of the student body.

Mr. Cobb has been acting superintendent at Fayetteville for two years, before which he was high school principal at West Oso for one year. Time and experience have made him one of the best in his field.

PRINCIPAL CREATES OPPORTUNITIES OF LEARNING

Running and maintaining a high school and an elementary school can become quite complicated unless the school has competent and efficient personnel to handle school and student problems. Fayetteville's principal is busy every minute, whether handling discipline problems, or teaching.

Mr. Jerry Odstrcil, principal of Fayetteville, handles not only the jobs of the principal but also takes on many jobs such as dealing with discipline problems, simple maintenance, passing out textbooks, or making daily announcements.

All in all, Mr. Odstrcil helps keep Fayetteville functioning at its greatest capacity as a place to learn and grow.

We, the F.I.S.D. TALENTED STUDENT SEMINAR REPRESENTATIVES, take pride in our representation at Blinn College in Brenham, as we learn of current happenings in the world. Academically talented juniors and seniors from Burton, Round Top-Carmine, and Fayetteville discuss matters such as computer programming, politics, Viet Nam, church morals and court procedures. We also benefited from a tour of the First National Bank of Brenham. We feel that we have attained great knowledge and experience by attending these sessions.

DISTRICT 57-B GIRLS' CO-CHAMPS

Contemplating a victory over RT-C

The 1973-1974 Basketball Season was an outstanding season for the Fayetteville Lionettes. They won the right to represent District 57-B in the Regional meet in San Marcos by defeating Danbury. Girls winning a position on the All-District First Team were:

Wanda Wecheta—Guard
Yvonne Fritsch—Guard
Dela Kulhanek—Forward

Those from Fayetteville on the Second Team were:

Jackie Schneider—Guard
Sharon Pflughaupt—Forward
Nancy Malota—Forward

A. Schmidt, P. Cufr, W. Harris, L. Fritsch, S. Fields, B. Fields, B. Schneider; 2nd row: Coach Knight, P. Fritsch, E. Michalsky, E. Matocha, S. Gerik, N. Wubbenhorst, V. Darden, G. Dobbins, D. Krenek—Scorekeeper.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Awaiting tip-off for play to begin.

Defeating RT-C edged the Lionettes one step nearer to Regional play.

Waiting for the beginning of the big game proved worthwhile for the spectators.

Fouling on the Bulldogs' part gave the Lionettes easy opportunity to score.

Cheering at the pep rally boosted everyone's spirits for Regional action.

Eyeing the Colmesneil Bulldogs made our girls' yen for winning even greater.

Glancing at the score following the game showed a sad score for us: 37-35.
