DEDICATION

Afterglow

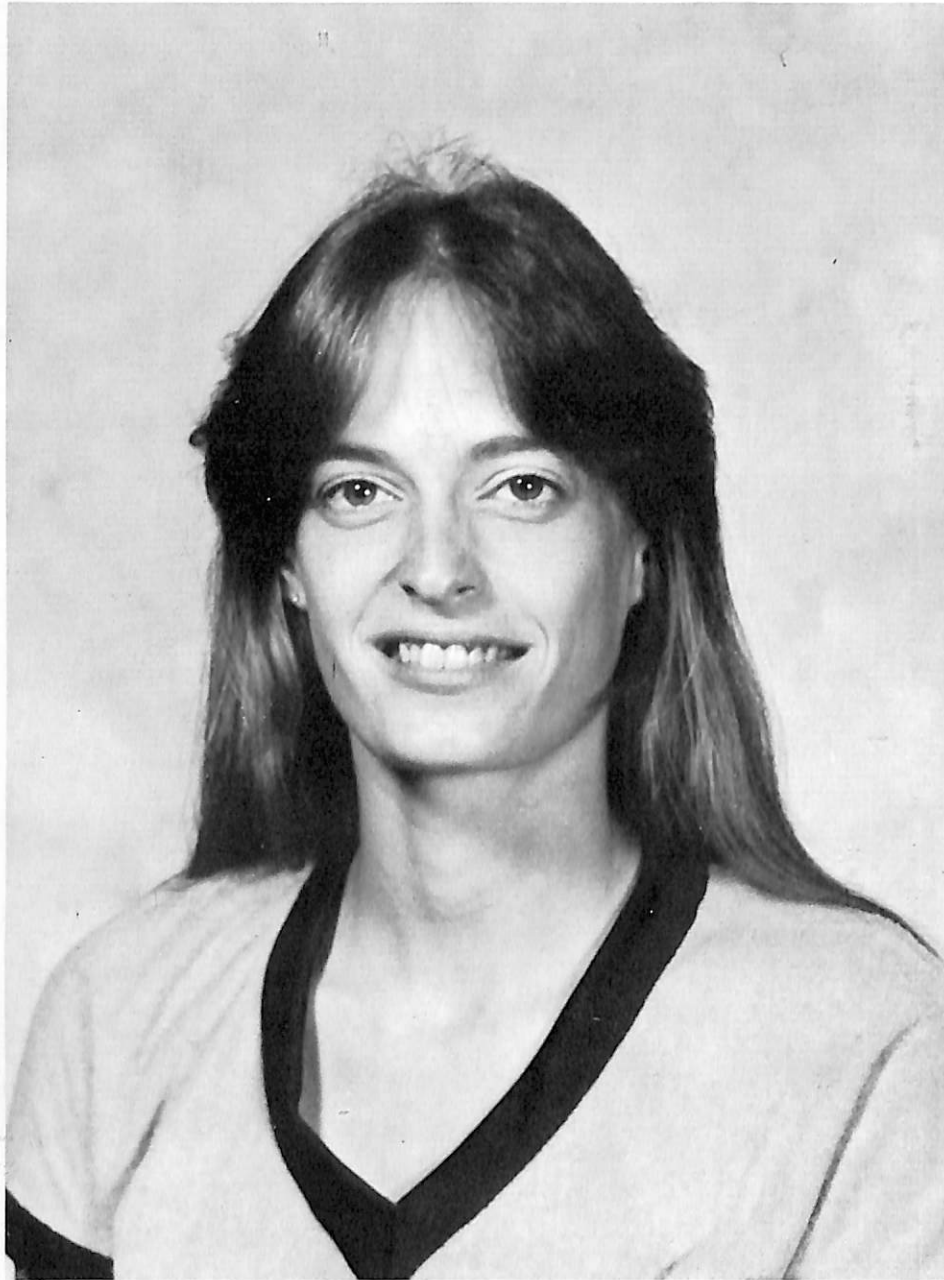

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life
is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down
the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry
before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave when life
is done.

SUSAN CASON

We, the 1980 Annual Staff, dedicate this year's Annual to the late Mrs. Susan Cason. While here, she inspired much warmth and cheerfulness around and through herself. The memories of her short stay here at Fayetteville High School will always be well remembered and cherished.

ADMINISTRATION

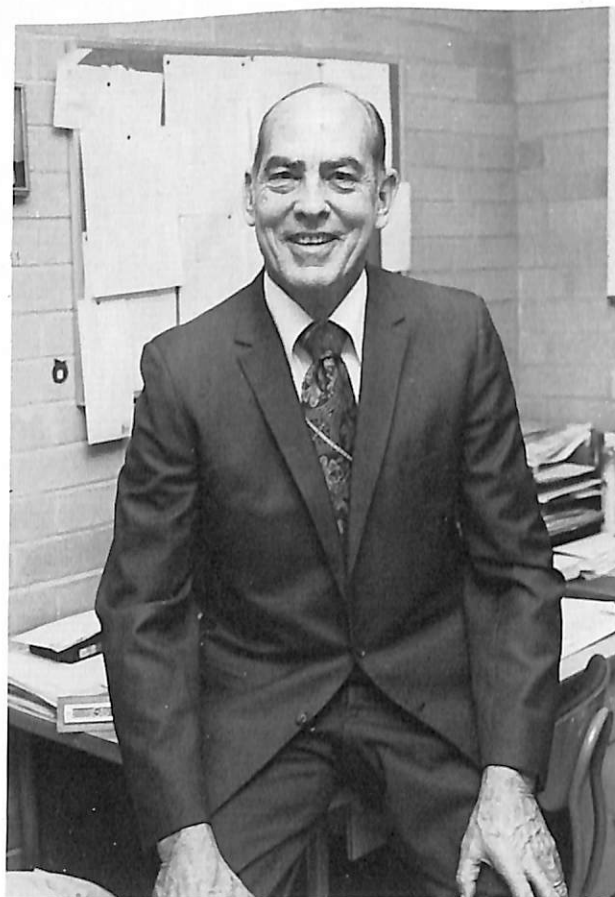

SUPERINTENDENT

Our tomorrows bring the greatest happiness when we plan our todays with great effort. May each of you find the happiness you seek and know that you made all the effort possible to reach that goal for your life.

My congratulations to the Annual Staff for preserving our history of the 1979-80 school year.

Ben W. Cobb

PRINCIPAL

To The Students Of Fayetteville I.S.D.

I like to think of the students coming to this fine school, because I recognize it to be more than just an institution of learning. I feel that here students have the opportunity to develop their mind, yet keep the human touch. I feel that this school augments many of our home teachings of tolerance, kindness, and understanding of the rights of others. Students do not learn in the same way I learned, it is true, nor do they learn the same things. There is an ancient proverb which says "Do not confine your children to your own learning, for they were born in another time."

This, I know is true, and in consequence, I must often adjust my views and seek to understand what sometimes seems a new and strange pattern of learning. But I have confidence in this school, and I offer tribute to it — a tribute not merely to an institution of learning but to a warm place of growth and understanding.

"BOLTS AND NUTS"

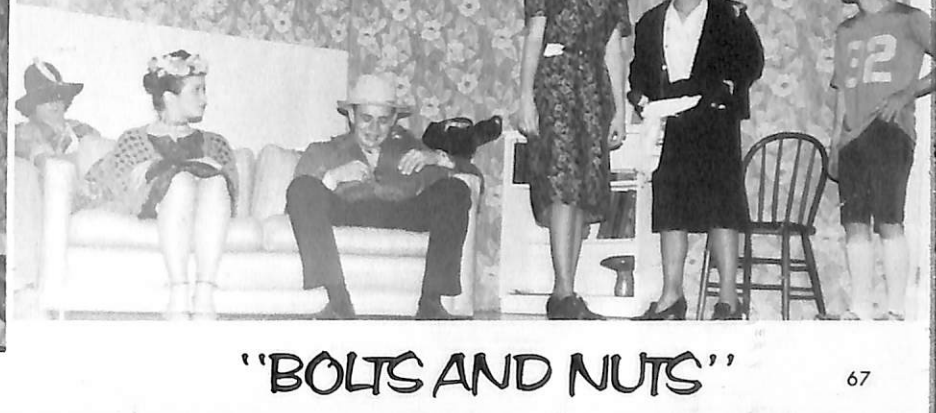

PRESENTED BY THE 1980 SENIORS

Bolts and Nuts is a 3-act comedy written by Jay Tobias. The play takes place in the living room of the Bolt mansion, owned and operated by the masterful Rebecca Bolt. When Miss Bolt inherits the spooky old mansion from an eccentric brother, she decides to turn it into a mental sanitarium for patients with phobias and nervous diseases, much to the dismay of her niece, Benita. Among the patients who arrive are Twink Starr, Miss Prunella Figg, Cadwalleder Clippy, Mrs. Gertie Glossop and her darling son Wilbur. Lutie Spinks, the maid, is eyed by Phineas Plunkett, a lawyer, and the mysterious cook, Martha Grubb, keeps everyone frightened. Dr. Hippocrates Joy turns out to be a lunatic in disguise, and is recaptured by Jack Gordon, an intern from the nearby asylum. Henry Goober, the porter, sits back and takes in the whole crazy scene as it is learned that the money is hidden in the house, and that the patients are really not crazy at all just fortune hunters.

Twink Starr, Bernita's fiancé, is the lucky one to find the hidden money, and Rebecca Bolt gets to keep the money only on the condition that Twink Starr marry Bernita right away. Rebecca consents to this idea immediately, and in the end we have a happy group of "crazy people!"
