

Union Public Schools

David Young, CPPB, CPO
Director of Purchasing and Supply Management

David Young has been employed by Union Public Schools since August of 1989. During his time at Union, he has served in two administrative capacities including his current position as Director of Purchasing since 1994 and formerly as the Director of Transportation.

Young earned the designation of Certified Professional Public Buyer (CPPB) from the Universal Public Purchasing Certification Council in 1997 and Certified Procurement Officer (CPO) through the Oklahoma Office of Management and Enterprise Services, Central Purchasing Division, in 2017. He is a member of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing (NIGP), the International Association of School Business Officials and the Oklahoma and Association of School Business Officials.

Young is a graduate of the Oklahoma Center for School Business Management program through the Oklahoma State University College of Education and earned his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from Southern Nazarene University.

From 2000 to 2018, Young served on the board of directors for the Tulsa affiliate of the Institute for Supply Management, ISM-Tulsa. In 2005, he was selected as the W. L. “Bill” James Outstanding Member by ISM.

Young enjoys presenting purchasing and supply management related workshops and classes. He is a frequent presenter at conferences and classes for the Oklahoma Association of School Business Officials and the Oklahoma Center for School Business Management.