Applicants and sponsoring agencies will be notified of the results in May.

For many years ORRC was fortunate enough to have funds to cover all of the eligible applications. However, in recent years some applications had to be declined. If funds are inadequate, the applications will be funded according to financial need for the scholarship, considering student's and parent's assets and income and number of children in the family. The entire amount of the freshman (only) award will be sent in July; no second semester check will be sent. The colleges require that students report all scholarships, even if they are given directly to the student. That is the student's responsibility.

Respectfully,

Taya Dunn
