

Lesson 22: Objects and Functions in Analogies

Analogies can be used to compare one object and function to another.

Key to Solving

How can you compare one object and function to another?

salve, heal bandage, bind

You can make an analogy to compare word pairs: Salve is to heal as bandage is to bind.

Directions: Darken the circle for the word that best completes each analogy.

1. Fire is to heat as fan is to _____.
 (A) wind (B) cool (C) current (D) water
2. Feet are to walk as hand is to _____.
 (A) grasp (B) fingers (C) point (D) glove
3. Accelerator is to go as brake is to _____.
 (A) red (B) car (C) drive (D) stop
4. Sponge is to absorb as eraser is to _____.
 (A) pencil (B) write (C) remove (D) clean
5. Journal is to write as sketchbook is to _____.
 (A) diary (B) charcoal (C) artwork (D) draw
6. Shovel is to dig as ruler is to _____.
 (A) measure (B) hole (C) inch (D) hoe
7. Comma is to pause as period is to _____.
 (A) semicolon (B) punctuation (C) stop (D) exclaim

Create your own analogy using objects and functions. Trade with a partner and think of a different example to go with each word pair.
