

Lesson 24: The Right Action

Analogies can be used to compare people and the actions they perform.

Key to Solving

How are the first two words related? How are the second two words related?

author, write artist, paint

An action an author performs is to write. An action an artist performs is to paint. We can compare the two word pairs by saying they describe people and the actions they perform. Another way of saying this is "Author is to write as artist is to paint."

author : write :: artist : paint

Directions: Write a word from the box to complete each analogy.
