

Venn Perplexors

The Story

The next day Stephen sits in his backyard with a bowl of chips in one hand and a bowl of cookies in the other. The 48 aliens are very curious creatures. 39 of them come up to Stephen, touch him, and then take a chip or cookie. 15 of them come and stand in front of Stephen and jabber at him. Only 2 very shy aliens don't come and touch Stephen or jabber at him.

Puzzle #6

? How many aliens just touch Stephen or just jabber at him, but not both?
