FOREWORD

More than once during the preparation of this year's AERIAL the staff has been conscious of time--time for photography--time for copy--time to sell ads--time for deadlines. Frequently we felt, if we may paraphrase a bit, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the AERIAL."

We of THE AERIAL staff would like to thank the administrators and the student body for their splendid cooperation in helping to bring you your yearbook. We have attempted to preserve for you the glowing memories of a happy, eventful year, and we hope this year's annual will always be treasured by you.
ADMINISTRATION
ADMINISTRATION

Reflections of youth in wholesome indulgences afford riches more valuable than silver and gold. This yearbook with its priceless memories is a personal treasure.

The Aerial staff and sponsor, Mrs. Oma McMichael, deserve appreciation and commendation for having volunteered their services in the production of THE AERIAL.

As the year 1957-58 draws to a close, I am prone to glance at our accomplishments with great pride.

It is my sincere wish that each student and teacher will continue to prosper and will secure for themselves a full and rich life.

Well, about a mile, pop. Why can't I have a bike?

Pop delivers a lecture on 'the better things in life.'

John Maxwell, you have the mind of a peanut.

Wilbur sees to the comfort of his 'guests.'

Oh, my stomach hurts. I don't think the soda is good for me.

The 'sleepwalking' Mrs. Mols appears on the stage.

One by one the guests are being awakened by the return of the Maxwell.

The word of authority speaks, "It's a fact!"

Limpz explains a few things to Mr. Maxwell.

Shall I knock his block off or throw him out in the street?

At last peace and quiet prevails over the Maxwell home.

That doesn't last long, however, and bedlam reigns again.

Da moffo fainted!

Connolly takes charge and peace is restored.

Let's do it again.

Who's Virginia?
Stretching legs at San Antonio.

At last, we're here!

Billy Paul, Jim, Kenneth, and Bob enjoy a game of miniature golf.

Water games are such fun.

A few like these enjoy swimming.

Darlene, Sybil, Diane, Dell, and Kerry---batting beauties.

The "boys" having a little game of water polo.

What's the matter girls? Afraid you'll drown?

Let's don't fight, girls.

Well, don't just stand there. Dive!

Some more sunbathers.

Miss Ruth and Dell.

Who's got the ball?

The girls try to get in on the game.

Admiring that ice cold water.

The patio overlooking the Max.
SENIOR SLAVE DAY

An owner takes possession.

A pair of tobacker chewing buddies.

A couple of young ladies and their beaux.

A future Baylorite and his Mammy.

Children will be delinquents, I mean children!!!

Little Dump May, Farmer Webb, Roberta Seale, Mary Alice, Little Lord Fauntleroy, and Farmer Batv.

SENIORS of '58? or '68?

Josephine

May I have this dance?

We of THE AERIAL would like to express our thanks to each and every one of the advertisers who made this yearbook possible. We realize that without their help we would have been unable to have had this annual for 1958. Again we say, "Thank you," to the many friends of THE AERIAL.
Mr. Hancock

Judy, Brenda, and Helen

Look at Carl go.

Signing memory books.

The servers raid the refreshment table.

And then the dancing begins . . . .

Sadie and Dan

Teachers and escorts look on.

Come on fellows and ask us to dance.

Don't look so bored, boys.

Now where did Jimmy go?

The "stag" line.

Mr. and Mrs. Hancock.

My, what a handsome crew!

Getting ready for the Grand March.

More memory book signing.
SNAPSHOTS

The Grand March

Now that's a sick looking bench.

Senior Banquet at the Methodist Church.

Senior Banquet at the Baptist Church.

Shorthand girls.

Fredzie decorates lamp posts.

NOTES follows.

Mopping at the NHS Sock Hop.

Never too old to dance.
