School Health Advisory Council

Every independent school district is required by law to have a school health advisory council (SHAC) of which the majority of members must be parents who are not employed by the school district. The SHAC is annually appointed by the local education agency Board of Trustees.

Texas Education Code

Title 2, Chapter 28, Section 28.004

What is a SHAC?

A SHAC is a group of individuals representing segments of the community and school district that provides advice to the district on coordinated school health (CSH) programming and its impact on student health and learning.
