

Delivering Engaging Lessons

Having been trained in the critical components of lesson design through Designing Engaging Lessons, teachers will now learn the essential elements for effectively delivering quality lessons. Through this training, components of lesson design are now developed in the preparation of lesson delivery. Teachers learn how to take the quality lesson they have prepared through the Design Framework and use the Delivery tool to plan how to effectively deliver/teach the lesson in a way that maximizes students' understanding and long term retention of learning. Teachers will learn the high yield strategies that will maximize student achievement.

Prerequisite: Designing Engaging Lessons is the prerequisite for this training.

Delivering Engaging Lessons – ½ day

Outcomes: Participants will:

- Use the Lesson Delivery Tool based on the Lesson Design Framework to determine how to deliver lessons that promote student learning.
- Identify and apply research-based instructional strategies that guide classroom practice and maximize student achievement.

Who:

- Delivering Engaging Lessons is meant for teachers and instructional leaders are encouraged to attend.
- Client booked trainings are full at 40.

When:
