

CONGRATULATIONS

Deidra Murphy was selected to participate in the first-ever High Reliability Teacher (HRT) Cohort for the state of Arkansas. She will join a select group of Arkansas educators to focus on increasing student achievement through aligned curriculum, formative assessment practices, and proven instructional strategies. HRT certification qualifies an educator to earn the Master Teacher Professional designation established by the Arkansas Department of Education.

