

Tall Tale –Text vs. Images

Draw a picture of the main character, using details from the text in the space below.

List the details from the text that helped you create this drawing.

What is the character's personality like? Support your answer with details from the story.

What is the tone of the story? (Humorous? Angry?) What words, phrases, or actions make you think this?

Tall Tale –Text vs. Images

Glue one other image of the main character in the space to the left. How is this different from your expectations after reading?

Glue another image of the main character in the space to the right. How is this different from your expectations after reading?

How do the images in the graphic novel change or confirm the tone of the story? Give examples from the original text and the graphic novel to explain your answer.

How do the images change or confirm the look of the character from the original text to the graphic novel? Give examples from both the original and graphic novel to explain your answer.