

Art Contest Begins Today! Encourage Your Students to Enter

The 2018-2019 You Art What You Eat! art contest officially opens today, February 12. TDA is now accepting illustrations of the National School Lunch Week theme "Level Up with a Healthy School Lunch" and the School Breakfast Week theme, "Level Up with a Healthy School Breakfast."

Students will use the video game inspired themes to illustrate healthy school meals. Tell students you know to visit SquareMeals.org/ArtContest where they will find all forms and information they need to enter to win statewide recognition. The winning artwork will be featured in materials that will be displayed at schools across the Lone Star State and much more.

The official art contest Guidelines and Information book is housed on the website above but can also be found by clicking here.

Thank you for participating and we look forward to receiving all of the artwork from your students!

Sincerely,

Texas Department of Agriculture
Food & Nutrition
