AP MicroEconomics Summer Assignment

DUE ON 8/1/2018 by 8:00a.m.!

Dear Student,

Welcome to AP Economics! The course that you have chosen may be one of the most challenging, yet rewarding courses that you have taken so far in your school career. To assist you in getting started on the "right foot", all students taking AP Economics will need to complete a summer assignment.

Your assignment is due August 1 by 8:00 a.m.!!! No exceptions. Students who fail to complete the assignment will be removed from the class. During the first week of class, students will take an exam that covers the material from the summer assignment. All assignments (including the test during the first week of school) will be counted as grades during your first six-weeks. Your assignment is as follows:

Summer Reading: Students will need to read chapter one from the Economics: Principles, Problems and Policies (12th edition) textbook by McConnell, Brue, and Flynn. It is also highly recommended that you read the chapter one appendix titled Graphs and their Meanings (this is located after the Chapter 1 summary/ending). This appendix has useful information regarding basic algebra skills and graphing used during economics. Some of the questions in your assignment are based on the algebra/graphing discussed in the appendix. To access the textbook, you will need to create an account online. Use the following web address and registration code to gain access to the textbook and assignments. Should you encounter any problems, please email Mr. Perry at perryj@needvilleisd.com You can also stop by Mr. Perry's room A104 before the end of the school year to get assistance in setting up your account.

Summer Assignments (Daily Grades): After reading chapter one and the appendix from the textbook, students will need to complete the assignment available in the online classroom. The assignments are titled: Chapter 1 Multiple Choice Questions. The assignments are online assignments that are due by 8:00 a.m. on August 1, 2018 (the program will not allow late submissions).

Should you encounter any problems or have any questions, you can contact me by email at perryj@needvilleisd.com. Please know that I will not check my email daily (usually at least once a week, except for the when I am on vacation) but will return your e-mails as soon as I can. Have a wonderful summer!!!

Sincerely,

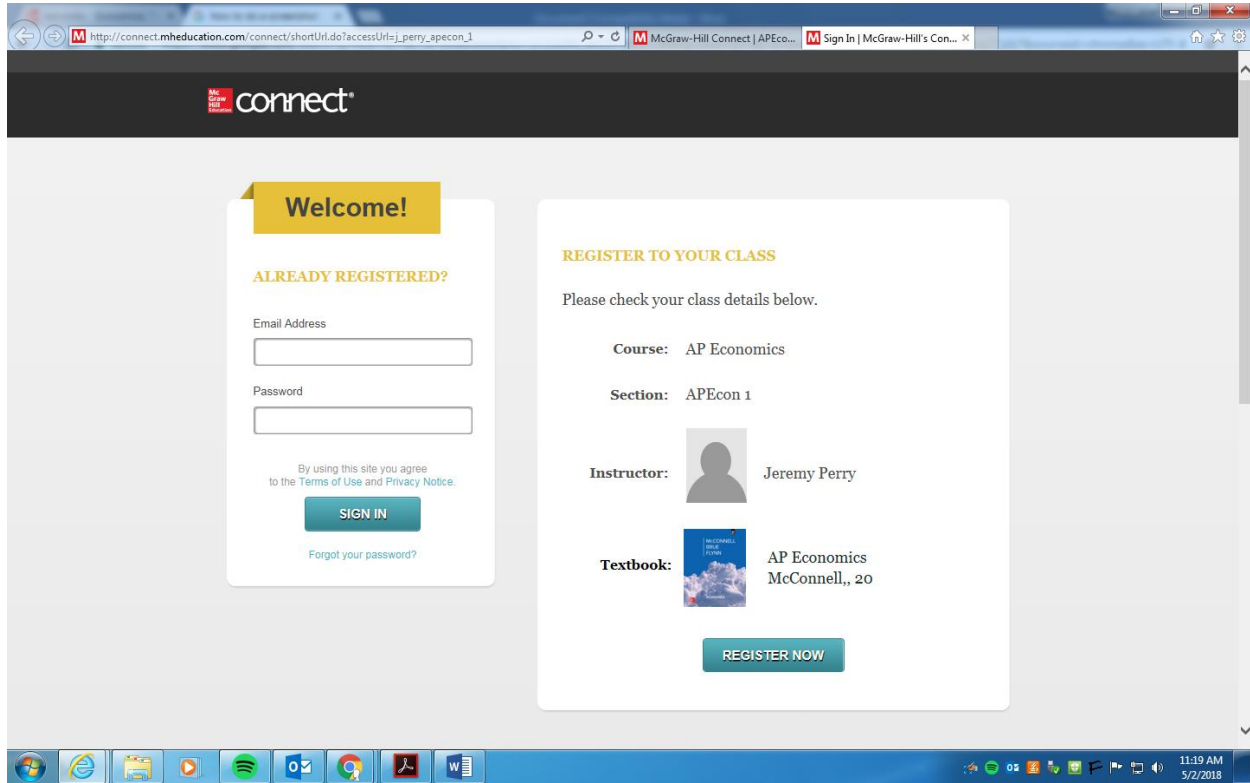

Jeremy Perry

STEP 3:

Enter the registration code provided: GXMK-Q8M8-MOEB-N59H-1CKJ
Submit.

STEP 4:

Continue creating your online account. Be sure to remember your password/email. I cannot access this information for you. After you complete registration, you will be taken back to the sign on page. Sign on with your email and password.

STEP 5:

Read the textbook.

The screenshot displays the McGraw-Hill Connect AP Economics instructor interface. The main content area is titled 'Section info' and includes the following elements:

- Instructor: Jeremy Perry (perryj@needvilleisd.com)
- Sections and colleagues: A link to view sections and colleagues.
- eBook: AP Economics by Campbell McConnell, Stanley Brue, Sean Flynn 20.
- Section web address: http://connect.mheducation.com/class/_per
- Upload syllabus: A button to upload a syllabus.

The 'Assignments' table is as follows:

Title	Shared	Info	Start-date	Show/hide
Chapter 1 Algebra/Graphing Problems			not assigned
Chapter 1 Multiple Choice Questions			05/02/17-09/28/17
Chapter 07 Review Questions			none

You are only responsible for Chapter 1.

STEP 6:

To navigate through the Chapter, use the drop down tool. Be sure to read all sections (including the Chapter 1 ending – this is where the appendix is).

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the McGraw-Hill Connect eBook interface. The address bar shows the URL: <http://connect.mheducation.com/connect/hmEBook.do?setTab=sectionTabs>. The page title is "CHAPTER 1. Limits, Alternatives, and Choices". A dropdown menu for "Chapter 1 Sections" is open, listing the following sections: Introduction, The Economic Perspective, Theories, Principles, and Models, Microeconomics and Macroeconomics, Individual's Economizing Problem, Society's Economizing Problem, Production Possibilities Model, Unemployment, Growth, and the Future, and Chapter 1 Ending. The main content area features a large image of a blue sky with white clouds, with the text "PART ONE" and "INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMICS AND THE ECONOMY" overlaid. Below the image, the chapter list is visible: CHAPTER 1 Limits, Alternatives, and Choices and CHAPTER 2 The Market System and The Circular Flow. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system tray with the date and time: 11:31 AM 5/2/2018.

STEP 7:

Finally, return to the course home page and complete the assignments. Remember, these are completed online. There is no time limit; however, you are only given 1 chance to answer the questions. Also, the assignment does not allow you the opportunity to reference the textbook once you are working on the questions. Please be sure to submit your assignments by the 8:00 a.m. due date on the first day of school – August 28, 2017.
