

Sra. Ward's Spanish III Pre-AP 2017 Summer Work

The student will read the novel In the Time of the Butterflies by Julia Alvarez.

Pay particular attention to each character and to what was taking place in the country as the story develops. Take notes as you read the novel, as it is divided by different time periods, and by what is happening to each sister. Be familiar with the dictator and his background. Pay attention to the small details, they are important.

Know about the author and her background, and what gives her a good insight into the story line.

Be ready to take a test at the beginning of the first week of class.
