

Pre-AP World History Summer Work

Summer work is to be turned in the first day of class to Coach Tomplait.

The paper must be printed Calibri font size 12.

Works cited page must be included.

Written paper should be two pages in length. Works cited will be the third page.

Your assignment is to read the History of the World in 6 Glasses and write a paper answering the following questions:

What drink was most influential on modern history?

What drink do you think will be most influential in describing upcoming events?

What drink was your favorite to read and why?

Describe the primary influence of each drink according to a certain part of history

The book can be found online at Amazon or doing a simple search of the book title with "PDF" tagged will help you find a copy to read.
